National Forest Supervisors will be interested in cooperating closely with this Economic Development District. 125. Please see our response 50 to the Department of Commerce. Mr. Theodor R. Swem Chairman, Alaska Planning Group U. S. Department of the Interior Washington, D. C. 20240 Dear Mr. Swem: Comments on the proposed Yukon-Kuskokwim National Forest (73-105): This is unquestionably the best of the three statements I examined (73-107, 73-92 and 73-105). It is thoroughly realistic in its evaluation of the Impact of the proposed management, and most honest in delineating adverse effects. They point out that It is a very large (7 million acres) area not expected to have greatly increased use over most the area, and the policy proposed would attempt to strike a balance between various disruptive and non-disruptive uses. I find it refreshingly free of pretense in the claims made regarding wilderness values. Sincerely yours, 126 RESPONSE TO COMMENTS BY...
