Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 36 pages. Milo is a very industrious canine who dons a suit and tie and practices law in the community. Your child will delight with Hailey as she discovers that her faithful companion has been very busy indeed. At every page, the reader is immersed into Milos world as a lawyer-by-night, taking on major clients and handling slick attorneys. Milo loves his profession and when his human, Hailey, finds out about his activities, enjoys showing her what he gets up to when the humans arent looking. MY DOG THE LAWYER is both clever and whimsical, and the characters are strong and defined. Readers will enjoy discovering Milos exploits as they read along with Hailey and will come to adore the character of Milo as he practices law and takes justice into his own hands. Along the way, readers will become immersed into the world of doggy law, where Saint Bernards reign down judgment, weasels represent shifty clients and corrupt corporations, and rabbits teach law at Yardvard, the best doggy law school in the country. From the Author: This book series is really based on my life. I have found that one of the best ways to lighten the mood or bring some happiness to my family is through laughter. I would often tell my wife stories about what Milo did all day while we were at work or school hoping to make her laugh. I have always loved her laugh. I used to tell her all the time that Milo is a lawyer. One day she forgot Milo and left him at her parents house. She received a call from Milos attorney Ralph Barkowitz who left a rather pointed message on our home phone. That was the beginning of the idea that has become the...
