Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .days or turns per week was the customary working time for 17.80 per cent of the 3,584 employees in all districts, and for 27.21 per cent of the 1,830 employees in the Great Lakes and Middle West district, 5 and 6 days or turns per week, alternating, was the customary working time for 10.88 per cent of all employees. A comparison of the tables showing the number of days or turns per week and the number of hours customarily worked per week shows that practically all of the employees who worked 7 days or turns per week worked in effect a 12-hour shift for the 7 days a week. It is important in considering the figures showing the percentage of employees in this department working 7 days a week to remember that the occupations here reported do not include the employees working on repairs and whose services are, therefore, required when the rail mills are not in operation. The occupations here covered include only those directly connected with productive processes. It can not be claimed that there is any necessity requiring the work in the rail mills to be carried on continuously. Practically the only employees for whom it may be claimed that there is a necessity for Sunday work are those who are members of the rolling crew who sometimes have a few hours work repairing rolls, the repair work on the rolls being done by the roll crew rather than the regular repair men....
