Xulon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A season of singleness can be a time period filled with highs and lows, opportunities to serve God and times of reflection on what your singleness means. For author Lori Grandstaff, her singleness had been filled with work, family/friends and faith, but she realized that God made her a relational being for that special guy. Her new book, Perfect Love, is her dating testimonial of returning to Jesus, her first love, and how this relationship led her to a meaningful Christian courtship with her now-fiancee Kevin. Her book offers text messages, emails and conversations she had with Kevin in friendship before relationship; grappling with purity in dating, discussing past relationships, facing trials as a couple and keeping God first in their union. Her willingness to not settling for anything less than God's best proves that when God brings two Christians together, He intends it as a marriage made for Heaven.
