Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Sun of Quebec The mystery in the life of Robert Lennox, the central figure, is solved in this sixth and closing volume of the French and Indian War Series. About The Author Kentucky-born Joseph A. Altsheler (1862-1919) was an American journalist who created several series of books including The French and Indian War Series and the eight-volume Young Trailers Series featuring young frontiersman Henry Ware: Other series involve the Great West, Civil War, World War, and Texas. The French and Indian War Series consists of six volume: 1. The Hunters of the Hills This is the first volume of a series dealing with the great struggle of France and England and their colonies for dominion in North America, culminating with the fall of Quebec. It is largely concerned with the Iroquois, the mighty league known in their own language as the Hodenosaunee, for the favor of which both French and English were high bidders. Altsheler notes that he consulted many authorities, and was not conscious of any historical error. 2. The Shadow of the North The Shadow of the North, while an independent story, in itself, is also the second volume of the Great French and Indian War series which began with The Hunters of the Hills. All the important characters of the first romance reappear in the second. 3. The Rulers of the Lakes Young Robert Lennox and his friend Tayoga undertake a dangerous trip through the wilderness to warn Fort Refuge of the approach of hostile forces. The story concludes with the battle of Lake George. The book is set almost completely in the wilderness, and provides an accurate picture of Iroquois life and warfare....
