Excerpt: . . . were denied. A final appeal was heard by the U. S. Supreme Court, and in June 2008, it was determined that for a maritime case of this nature, punitive damages could not exceed compensatory damages, and thus the settlement was limited to 507. 5 million. The Supreme Court also determined that it would not decide whether interest on the settlement should be paid to the plaintiffs. In June 2009, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals decided that interest should indeed be part of the final settlement. Phased disbursement of the settlement and interest is expected to continue well into 2011. 1. 3 Project Rationale and Parameters of the Settlement Award The baseline database described in this report was formulated based on the possibility that the total settlement award could be as large as 6. 5 billion, with significant implications for the lives of many of the roughly 32,...
