Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Speech The Senate, as in Committee of the Whole, having under consideration the bill (H. R. 8328) defining: butter, also imposing a tax upon and regulating the manufacture, sale, importation, and exportation of oleomargarine - Mr. Miller. Mr. President, the bill under consideration is House bill 8328, having for its object, as the title indicates, to define butter and to impose a tax upon and regulate the manufacture, sale, importation, and exportation of oleomargarine. I think no bill has been before this body for many years which has excited so much public interest as this. It has been the topic of conversation and of discussion both in newspapers and in public meetings from Maine to Minnesota. The great body of the American people have been interested in the question, and they have taken the trouble to make their views known to Congress. During the present session we have received here petitions signed by at least fifty thousand American citizens praying for legislation similar to that contained in this bill. Some five or six thousand...
