Robert Stilman Franklin, Vice President of the Society, Died October 8th, 1913 The quaint spelling, the contracted words, the use of old forms and letters combined with the dignified language of Scripture and the early poets make a most interesting study and show the visitor to the cemetery how truly Every stone that we look upon in this repository of past ages is both an entertainment and a monitor. It is the purpose of this article to give the inscriptions that are of interest in themselves, as well as some of those that have a more permanent historical value. In the Ward and Cranston plat now cared for by the Park Commission of the city, are gathered together the monuments of members of these and other prominent early families. A large flat slate slab, with skull and cross bones at the top, records that Here lyeth interred the Body of Major John Cranston Esq Governor who deceased this life the 12 day...
