The Nez Perce Nimiipuu people are a people filled with wonder and valor. They accomplished great things and tried new methods that were great and good. The Nez Perce Nimiipuu people are relatives of Laurel Sobol, because Chief Joseph's Great Grandson James Martin, brought her into the tribe through a natural heart and spirit adoption that was as natural as breathing air and drinking water. Laurel is writing four wonderful legends of the Nez Perce Nimiipuu people straight from the heart. James Martin was a great man, a great father, and a great keeper of stories and legends. Thus this book relays the stories from far back in time and are told today even now, just as they will be told later in history for all time. A color illustrated volume.
