R Ladies and Gentlemen: Some of your citizens have expressed a desire to hear my views, which I was prevented by illness from expressing on the occasion of your late mass meeting, and which are only of any importance because of the trust you have so generously confided to me. Our Government is involved in two seemingly irrepressible conflicts - one with armed treason and secession; the other with an illimitable, indescribable military necessity. In both these conflicts we the Democratic party are for the Government and against its assailants. While the Administration, its adherents and allies, may be with us against armed treason and secession, they are against us and for this military necessity, alike dangerous to the Government; so that, between us and our political opponents there is another conflict, and altogether we have some strife and more confusion in the land. Believing, as we do, that our institutions are founded in principles of truth and justice unchangeable; that the people, the source of power, who make and unmake Administrations and Governments, are capable of comprehending and appreciating the worth of these institutions, we are not without hope of their ultimate triumph. That they may triumph, they must be understood; that they may be understood, they must be canvassed and discussed. If, in these discussions, we shall say aught which does not support the efforts of the Administration, and which is not warranted in fact, while we yet have the press and speech unabridged the means of our detection and exposure are ever at hand; if, however, we speak but the truth, the truth and our institutions founded...
